Sweet Briar College

Sweet Briar, Va.

1900—"It shall be the general scope and object of the school to impart to its students such education in sound learning . . . as shall best fit them to be useful members of society."

The Last Will and Testament of Indiana Fletcher Williams

Since 1900, these words have been the foundation of this college. In 1976, the purpose still remains the same. Implicit in this fact is tradition, and behind the tradition is history. Much of the tradition is still observed; most of the history is ignored.

This book is dedicated to the tradition of Sweet Briar College. It is also dedicated to Daisy Williams, whose name and life are at the root of the history. She is now buried on Monument Hill, along with the members of her family who had the foresight to create history and tradition. It is fitting that they are buried on what is called Monument Hill; for founding a college is indeed a monumental task.

IN MEMORY of DAISY

A day is composed
of
twenty-four hours,

one thousand four hundred forty minutes, eighty-six thousand four hundred seconds.

Some have invented clocks

in an attempt
to put
time
in its
place;

others have
ignored
clocks

in an attempt

to secure
their place in time.

For them, a day is composed of people and events,
lengthening to form
patterns and chains,

each marking
the passage
of
months
and years.

Some patterns are
ordinary,

Some
chains rust ;

others
are
unique,
and
lasting.

Every person has such chains,
Most have a place in someone else's pattern;

And when that place
Is unique and lasting,
That person has made history—

And the ultimate
judge
of
history
is
time.

"The Wizard of Oz"

And even if we are occupied with important things, even if we attain honor or fall into misfortune - still let us remember how good it was once, here, when we were all together, united by a good and kind feeling which made us....

better perhaps than we are.

HOW TO WIN BOY-FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE STAG-LINES

By Dalea Dorothy Clix

Dear Miss Clix: How can I impress our drama teacher that I ought to get the part of Juliet when our school does "Romeo and Juliet" this year? The teacher comes from New York, is handsome, worldly and mature (around 35), but he's as aloof as a Greek god on Mt. Olympus. I feel like a babe in arms in his presence. How can I get the role? ASPIRING

Dear "Aspiring": I don't want to poach on any of Mr. Freud's preserves, but you sound as though your mind aspires toward the drama teacher more than toward the drama. However, Juliet was only fourteen, so maybe feeling like a babe in arms (even his arms) might help, psychologically. Beyond that, remember that an actress must express deep emotions with her hands. Make yours beautiful—and remember, civilized New Yorkers expect a woman's fingernails to be beautifully colored.

AND NOW, DEAR,
READ THE NEXT COLUMN CAREFULLY!

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HAVE MORE BEAUTIFUL NAILS

Let the brilliant, gem-hard lustre of DURA-GLOSS give your fingernails that marvelous attraction and allure that men admire! DURA-GLOSS is the amazing new nail polish that's different! DURA-GLOSS flows on more smoothly, keeps its brilliant beauty of color longer, resists tacking and chipping better! Have the most beautiful fingernail in the world—buy DURA-GLOSS!

Crestline wood windows give you warmth, beauty and value. Warmth . . . because wood conducts much less cold (or heat) than any other window material. Beauty . . . from the rich look of natural wood grains. Value . . . thanks to low cost, high quality, and enduring dependability. Specify quality Crestline wood windows for your home.
